

British Tax Review

Issue 2 2024

Table of Contents

Case Notes

Sonder Europe Ltd v HMRC; Bolt Services UK Ltd v HMRC: Sonder and Bolt and TOMS, oh my Etienne Wong	179
BCM Cayman LP v HMRC: partnerships as members of other partnerships Michael McGowan	190
HMRC v Bluecrest Capital Management LP; Andrew Dodd v HMRC: partnership profits and “miscellaneous income” Michael McGowan	199

Articles

Introduction: Democracy and Tax Administration Stephen Daly	204
On the Rule of Law and Democracy: Policy Rules and Principles in Dutch Taxation Hans Gribnau	211
A Case Study in Arcane But Impactful Tax Administration: Ireland and Withholding Tax on Patent Royalties in 2010 Emer Hunt	239
The Rise and Demise of the New Zealand’s Taxation Principles Reporting Act—A Lost Opportunity? Adrian Sawyer	261
A Statutory Basis for the Use of Automated Risk Management Systems in Tax Administration Angelika Mohr	283
Is the HMRC Charter Fit for Purpose? Experiences of Tax Practitioners and Vulnerable Citizens Sara Closs-Davies, Lynda Burkinshaw and Jane Frecknall-Hughes	304
Shifting Sludge: Marginalised Taxpayers and Tax Administration Amy Lawton and David Massey	327